

How to Talk so your Child will Listen – Parenting Talk

Hi Parents,

Quality conversation focuses on what we are hearing. As parents, you will need to show empathy towards your child and learn to listen to them. A child who is listened to, learns how to listen. We will be sharing and discussing the key points on how to communicate with your child:

1. Need for empathy and change in communication style
2. Guidelines for quality conversation – learn to actively listen to your child
3. Learning to talk better – how to have a meaningful dialogue with your child

Speaker is Mr Jason Ng from Families for Tomorrow Services.

FamilyMatters@Woodgrove Primary School invite parents for this very engaging, thought-provoking workshop in managing our children.

Date: 19 May 2017 (Friday)
Time: 3pm to 5pm
Venue: Classroom 6A (Ground floor).

If you are interested, please complete the registration form at the address below by 15 May 2017.

<https://goo.gl/forms/lvHtteGyLOpoOznu1>

Please SMS Mdm Rosita at 96277774 during office hours for any query.